

Checklist for groups at AWE Burghfield in June 2016

23 February, 2016

- Decide which day(s) you want to attend depending on your interests or region. See Schedule for month with contact info.
- Register your interest with the organiser of that day. See Schedule for month with contact info.
- Make sure you receive information from the organiser about accommodation or transport being arranged for that day.
- Find friends and form an affinity group with people you like, sign up for a training and get prepared.
- Decide what you want to do on the day as your nonviolent civil resistance and practice it with your affinity group making sure you have enough supporters in your group.
- Get as much advice and help as you want and need by talking to people at Trident Ploughshares by contacting june@tridentploughshares.org
